MARQUIS DOWNS THOROUGHBRED RACING NOW BROADCAST LIVE ON THE INTERNET!

(Saskatoon)...

The launch of the 2011 season of Thoroughbred racing at Marquis Downs is more exciting than ever, as the opportunity to view the action has gone world-wide. Every race this season can be viewed online at www.marquisdowns.com - available to race fans internationally.

Canadian race fans can easily wager on the Marquis Downs Thoroughbred racing through Canada's premier online and telephone wagering service HorsePlayer Interactive. This secure site offers online wagering and betting tools for the novice or experienced racing enthusiast.

"It is an exciting time at Marquis Downs as we enter this new era of viewing races online. We are pleased to offer the wagering opportunity to Canadian Thoroughbred racing fans," states Prairieland Park CEO, Mark Regier. "Marquis Downs is proud to have reached this level of recognition in the race industry."

Marquis Downs will once again offer 30 days of Thoroughbred racing throughout the summer beginning May 27. Racing will be conducted every Friday and Saturday evening, with first post at 7:05 p.m. (with the exception of August 12 & 13 when the Chuckwagons will race at Marquis).

We invite the media to hear more details on the upcoming racing season – join us for a breakfast news conference on Thursday, May 26 from 8 – 9 am at the Marquis Downs Terrace!
